

New Jersey's DO NOT CALL law is the best in the nation and should stay that way. As a citizen of this country, I have the right to not have my time taken up with unsolicited telemarketers. If anything, the FCC should support this law across the entire country.